ELECTION PROCESS

Thank you to all who participated in this year's election. Over 1.6 million Utahns were registered to vote, a record high. Ballots will continue to be counted throughout this week and next, so remain patient as votes are tallied. May we all remain civil and understanding of others throughout the transitions and during this unique election season.

LEADERSHIP ELECTIONS

On Thursday, The Utah House Majority Caucus elected the following to serve on their leadership team:

Speaker of the House, Brad Wilson; Majority Leader, Francis Gibson; Majority Whip, Mike Schultz; Majority Assistant Whip, Val Peterson

Regarding the leadership election, Speaker Brad Wilson said: "Serving as Speaker of the Utah House of Representatives has been the privilege of a lifetime, as I lead and work alongside 74 of the greatest House members. I am proud and honored to serve another term as Speaker of the House and to continue to work with Francis Gibson, Mike Schultz, and Val Peterson. The stability in our leadership team positions us to move seamlessly into the 2021 legislative session with our focus on creating policies that improve the lives of and create opportunities for the people of our state."

PODCAST- UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFITS

The Utah House of Representatives produces a weekly podcast. This week, Nate McDonald joined the show to discuss unemployment benefits and what DWS is doing to ensure every Utahn has the resources they need to make it through these challenging times. Listen here!

Check out the DWS “hot jobs” portal here. You can find exciting, in-demand jobs in several industries including finance, information technology, health, construction, and more!
