REDISTRICTING

The Legislative Redistricting Committee is wrapping up this once-in-a-decade process! The Legislature will convene in a special session on November 9 to approve maps for Utah's Congressional, State House, State Senate, and State School Board Districts.

You can submit your own map for consideration by using the state-of-the-art map drawing tool. Be sure to stay up-to-date by following the committee on Twitter & Facebook, and visiting redistrict.utah.gov.

EXPANSION OF GRAND STAIRCASE-ESCALANTE AND BEARS EARS NATIONAL MONUMENTS

Last month, the Biden Administration announced the restoration of Grand Staircase–Escalante and Bears Ears National Monuments. The decision to expand the monuments is disappointing. For the past 10 months, we have consistently offered to work with the administration on a permanent, legislative solution. We remain hopeful that a long-term solution will be reached in the future and that the exhausting policy instability over Utah's public land can come to an end.

OCTOBER INTERIM

We met together last month for interim committee meetings to discuss draft legislation for the 2022 general session and other pressing issues across the state. Read the interim highlights <a href="https://example.com/hee-en-like/hee-e

THANKSGIVING

This Thanksgiving, we are especially grateful for the exceptional state in which we live and for the people who make it so great! Enjoy a happy and safe Thanksgiving with your loved ones.
