Utah House Majority Caucus Elects Leadership Members

SALT LAKE CITY – The Utah House Majority Caucus has elected the following representatives to the respective positions for the 66th Legislature:

Speaker of the House – Mike Schultz
House Majority Leader – Jefferson Moss
House Majority Whip – Karianne Lisonbee
House Majority Assistant Whip – Casey Snider

“I am humbled and excited to continue serving as Speaker of the House,” said Speaker Schultz. “This is a pivotal time for our state as we face today’s challenges and prepare for the future. I’m confident the House of Representatives will accomplish great things for Utah over the next two years, and look forward to serving with all of our representatives to keep Utah the best state in the nation.”

“It is an honor to serve my colleagues in the House Majority Caucus,” said Rep. Moss. “Our caucus members’ selfless dedication and subject matter expertise continually impresses me. I’m excited to help our caucus as we move forward over the next couple of years to solve problems and accomplish big things together.

“I am privileged to continue serving as the Majority Whip,” said Rep. Lisonbee. “And I am grateful for the support of my colleagues. I look forward to serving them and representing their voices and the voices of all Utahns. We have important work to do, critical issues to address, and a bright future ahead.”

“I’m grateful for the opportunity to continue working alongside an exceptional leadership team and an extraordinary caucus,” said Rep. Snider. “The House is ready to make big strides as we work to better the lives of Utahns.”
