

SOCIAL MEDIA USE POLICY

The House of Representatives and its representatives use non-government third-party tools and websites, including social media platforms, to provide the public with information.

Comments on all platforms are moderated, without regard to viewpoint, to ensure compliance with this policy. The House of Representatives and its representatives reserve the right to hide, delete, or not allow comments that contain:

- Abusive, vulgar, threatening, or harassing language;
- Sexually explicit subject matter, hate speech, personal attacks, or offensive terms that target specific individuals or groups;
- Personally identifiable information, whether the commenter's own or someone else's, such as full legal names, Social Security numbers, addresses, or phone numbers;
- Promotion or encouragement of illegal activity;
- Endorsements or promotions of products or other entities, spam, or unsolicited proposals; or
- Information that is off topic.

The House of Representatives and its representatives do not guarantee that any information posted on its social media platforms is correct and disclaims any liability for any loss or damage resulting from reliance upon such information. The House of Representatives does not endorse or assume liability for anything posted on our social media platforms by any person, employee, or commenter.

Thank you for reading our comment policy. We encourage you to visit our social media platforms and join the conversations.
